Actress the Guest of More Than a Hundred Women.

More than 100 women and a few men gave a "Friendship Dinner" at the Hotel McAlpin last night for Mary Shaw, actress, who has passed a long and successful career on the stage, but has found time for many activities concerned with the advancement of the interests of professional women.

Maria Jenney Howe was Chairman of the dinner. The other speakers were Carrie Chapman Catt, Eleanor Gates, Pola La Follette, Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Margaret Wetherby and Edith Ellis. The guest of honor made a short speech.

SALTS IN HOT WATER
CLEARS PIMPLY SKIN

Says We Must Make Kidneys Clean
the Blood and Pimples Disappear

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

WIDOW HAD $996,000
CASH IN A SUITCASE
CHECKED AS BAGGAGE

Mrs. Stewart's Bag, Sent to Trustees After Death, Found to Hold a Fortune.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Mrs. J. K. Stewart, widow of the speedometer inventor, who died in Alton, Ill., last Monday, believed in preparedness in money matters. A suitcase was found in the death chamber which, with other personal property, was forwarded to the Merchants' Loan and Trust Company here, trustees of the Stewart estate. When the suitcase was opened yesterday, $996,000 in currency—in $5,000 and $10,000 gold bills—rolled out on the table.

Certified checks to the amount of $296,000 also were found in the bag, which was supposed to contain articles of small value—clothing and some jewelry, and possibly a second will. Scant attention had been paid to it on its trip to Chicago. J. K. Stewart died in New York ten months ago.

The finding of nearly $1,000,000 in the suitcase was as great a surprise to friends of the family as to the officials of the bank. It was reported that the suitcase, with its precious contents, was checked in the baggage car when the funeral party left Alton, and that the baggage men threw it about like ordinary baggage. The members of Mrs. Stewart's family had no intimation that such a fortune was kept in the winter home in the South. Unless another will is discovered in the vaults in New York, the entire Stewart estate, now valued at approximately $7,000,000, goes to the two daughters—Marion, fourteen years old, and Jean, five years old.

PERFUMES

THE breath of an altogether pleasing perfume floating from laces, kerchiefs or the garments of a woman, is a subtle expression of the individuality of the person who uses the delicate scent. Nowadays a woman chooses her perfumes as she does her friends—to last long, remain sweet and never suggest expensive luxury.

By skilled blending and compounding, odors of delicate charm are created in Macy's perfume laboratories, workshops where flowers die but to live again in perfumes of exquisite aroma. The perfumes originated by our Chemists are almost facsimiles of well-known existing French brands which sell at about $2.00 the ounce; however, they are priced without sentiment for artistic container, box, bottle or label, although all our perfumes are contained in appropriate bottles and boxes.
